

Radiological Engineer

Job Duties/Responsibilities:

Responsible to provide technical advice to AMWTP and performs as a technical expert in the field of Radiological Engineering. Must interpret, organize, execute, and coordinate complex assignments with independent decision-making. Plan and develop projects to resolve unique problems that have important effect on major organization programs. Disciplines include, but are not limited to: Regulatory Compliance, Industrial Hygiene, Health Physics, Safety, Environment Protection, risk assessment, and Fire Protection. Recommend improvements in process, design, procedures, and operating equipment, to minimize the potential for radiological hazards.

Minimum Qualifications/Skills Requirements:

- 1- BS Health Physics or related technical discipline
  - 2- Knowledge of regulations pertaining to radiation protection
  - 3- 3 years of related experience preferred
  - 4- Excellent oral and written communications skills
-